

Graham Mackie

Graham conducted his residency from 29 Sep – 12 October 2014.

Working out of the Studio, he focused on landscape and abstraction using oil-stick on canvas and board during his residency. He worked closely with the Grafton Art Club who used the gallery courtyard as their studio for various workshops with Graham as their mentor. Graham encouraged the Grafton Art Club artists to push their boundaries using subject matter and materials that members were not used to using in their art practice..

Graham is a former secondary school Visual Arts and Physical Education Teacher and a Level 3 Cricket Coach. Graham is a practising artist in the disciplines of Painting, Drawing and Photography. He exhibits regularly in Yamba, Gold Coast and Dubbo and runs Coombadjha Art Studio /Gallery, Artists Retreat and Camping Ground west of Grafton on the eastern side of the Great Diving Range.

Image credit: Graham with Pam Fysh of Grafton art Club

This program was supported by funding from Arts NSW

